

John Galloway, Visiting Professor of Art at Southern Illinois University, will speak at The Cleveland Museum of Art on Wednesday January 28 at 8:15 p.m. His lecture is entitled STYLE IN TWENTIETH CENTURY ART.

Galloway studied at the American University, Washington, D.C., and received his doctorate from Columbia University. He has taught art at both these universities and at Alabama University.

He has travelled extensively throughout this country, Mexico and Europe. Winning a Fulbright grant he spent the winter of 1957-58 in West Berlin.

A former editor of RIGHT ANGLE he has contributed many articles to it. He has written and delivered many papers on a variety of subjects in the field of art.

The lecture will be held in the auditorium and is open free to the public.